

THE GOOD STUFF

by Todd Mrowice

Nothing Else MATTRs

Materials. Technology. Research. Might seem like a lot for a shirt, but that's how PUMA rolls. The brand's new MATTR lineup is performance fabric to the highest degree. The Leucadia polo is 92% polyester, 8% elastane, and has a subtle palm tree all-over print. Gives us all of the warm feels!

$75 cobragolf.com

Walk This Way...

If you're ditching the cart, some comfy kicks are what you'll need. The new Coronado V2 SL from Callaway is a spikeless dream with a ForgedFoam midsole for ultimate comfort and performance. Waterproof mesh and microfiber leather upper.

Best of both worlds. Available in three colorways.

$119.95
callawayfootwear.com

DO Try This at Home

Over the past year if you've turned your garage into a practice bay, you're missing something. The Rapsodo Mobile Launch Monitor won't break the bank and will give you all of the swing feedback you want (or don't want). Indoor/outdoor friendly, easily pairs with your Apple device, a must have!

$499.99 rapsodo.com

No Tape, No Solvent, No Problem

Golf Pride has turned re-gripping on its head with the debut of the Concept Helix grip. You don't need a vise grip or any of the normal accessories because these slip directly onto the shaft with an installation horn and lock into place by twisting the end cap. Now that's what we call innovative.

$9.99 per grip golfpride.com

Target Locked. Engage.

Laser rangefinders don't need to be more than your car payment.

Shot Scope sees to that with the new Pro L1, which has all of the features you'll find on models twice the cost. Black/red dual optics, Adaptive Slope technology, Target-Lock Vibration, x6 magnification, and a durable carrying case.

$199.99
shotscope.com

This is my Bag, Baby

The 3-in-1 Birdie Bag by Stitch is something you didn't know you needed, until now. A luxe carry-on that can convert to a work bag which can also convert to a legitimate cooler! Patented removable inserts that are magnetic make it all possible. It's the Ben Zobrist of bags. Does it all.

$298 stitchgolf.com

